Dear Helen Worden Erskine: I am at my wits' end. My daughter-in-law looks at my only boy with those big, innocent eyes of hers and makes him betteve! I've been rude, when all I've ever done is try to be the very best of friends. Even as she was going to the hospital, she didn't let me know her babies were coming. I worried all year thinking up gifts for them. All the thanks I got was, "You're wasting your money buying a cowboy hat for your grandson." Now they live 1,200 miles away. Last fall they invited me to visit them. Nobody was there to meet me when I arrived. She hadn't given my son my letter telling the time of my arrival. She would like to get him mad at me. Weat can one do with a person like that? Maybe it would be better if I told her off, -B.N.

Truman Will Not Attend Convention

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A comire old molifician. Herev S. Truman, dominated the political news today simply by imnouncing that he wouldn't attend. the Demogratic National Convention in Los Angeles Truman's emoune most that be was withdrawing from Missonri's convention delegation came as a surprise to Wastinston, which speculated what his action mount, The former president assured himself of further beadlines by (refusing to say why he did it. He said he'd tell all at a Saturday news conference in Independence, Truman has been an ordent backer of Sen. Shart Symington.; his fellow Missourion, for the a Democratic presidential nomination. Symington said he is still running hard Among the speculative theories: Truman has decided Symington can't make the grade and doesn't want to preside over a hopeless cause in Los Angeles a week and a half from now.

Another: Training suspects a "deal" is in the making between Symington and See John F. Keisnedy of Massachusetts, the front runner for the normantion. As tills? theory goes, Symington would become secretary of defense in a Kennedy Cobinet, while his delegate strength would raily mainly to Kennedy at the convention and perhaps put Kennedy over the
